

Globalization & Industrial America, 1830-2005:
New Brunswick, NJ & Raritan River Valley, A Microcosm
BIBLIOGRAPHY OF SELECTED MATERIALS FROM RUTGERS SPECIAL
COLLECTIONS & UNIVERSITY ARCHIVES

The Sinclair New Jersey Collection at Rutgers Special Collections and University Archives is the most comprehensive collection of New Jersey materials in the state and one of the finest local history collections in the nation. The collection was named for Donald A. Sinclair, curator of Special Collections from 1946 until his retirement in 1982. A complete description of the collection can be found on the Rutgers University Libraries' website: (http://www.libraries.rutgers.edu/rul/libs/scua/sinclair/sinclair_main.shtml). Materials relevant to industrial development in the Raritan Valley include monographs, serials, pamphlets, city directories, trade and manufacturers' catalogs, maps and manuscripts. A bibliography of selected materials follows.

Much of the Sinclair New Jersey Collection is housed in open stacks in the New Jersey Room located on the basement level of Alexander Library. These materials are listed in IRIS, the Rutgers University Libraries online catalog, under sublocation SNCLNJ, SNCLY, and SNCLY2. Oversize (folio), rare or fragile material is stored in closed stacks and can be accessed via call slips at the New Jersey Room reference desk. These appear in IRIS under sublocations SNCLNJF, SNCLX, SNCLXF, SNCLY3, etc.

Holdings of older uncataloged periodicals held by Special Collections can be found in A Checklist of New Jersey Periodicals, available at the New Jersey Room reference desk. A similar guide, A Union List of New Jersey Annual Publications in the Library Collections of the New Jersey Historical Society and Rutgers University exists for older uncataloged annuals. Researchers may wish to examine other works with similar call numbers and search for additional materials under related subject headings.

Atlases and Maps

Maps depict New Jersey throughout its history. Highlights include the “Admiral’s Map,” an early representation of the New world and several dozen nineteenth-century wall maps of New Jersey cities and counties.

Printed maps of New Jersey, its regions, counties and municipalities, including most maps acquired through 1980, are listed in Guide to New Jersey Maps in Special Collections and Archives (SNCLNJ GA195.N5C37 1986) available at the New Jersey Room reference desk. Checklists of New Jersey atlases and wall maps are also available at the desk.

Printed aerial views of New Jersey municipalities are included in the map collection. A checklist of the aerial views, also known as bird’s eye views, is available at the New Jersey Room reference desk. Online versions of many aerial views are available online from the Library of Congress at http://memory.loc.gov/ammem/collections/panoramic_photo//placeN.html (Scroll down to the section on New Jersey).

Manuscript maps of New Jersey, frequently in the form of photostatic reproductions, are listed in a separate, geographically-arranged checklist available at the New Jersey Room Reference desk. The manuscripts maps are stored in closed stacks and must be requested via call slips. Three examples are cited below:

Map of Plantation on Raritan, South, Millstone and Rahway Rivers and Cedar, Bound and Green Brooks, 1882. Manuscript, negative copy. Shows properties and names of proprietors. #13,028.

Map of Property of Johnson & Johnson, New Brunswick, New Jersey, 1893. Blue ink on white paper. Bounded by Hamilton Street, James Neilson’s property, and Delaware & Raritan Canal. #14,053.

New Brunswick Waterfront. Manuscript, ink on linen, colored. Shows property and streets along the Raritan River. Names industrial properties including the Gas Light Co. #14,016.

Prepared for the May 12, 2006 Globalization conference by John Beekman and Kristen Shea with suggestions from Bonita Craft Grant.
